

CENTER FOR CITIES+SCHOOLS
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA BERKELEY

OAKLAND UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
Community Schools, Thriving Students

SAVE
THE DATE!

Y-PLAN Oakland Spring 2017 Final Events

Planning a Healthy, Vibrant Oakland For and With Young People

Y-PLAN Oakland students from across the city will share their experiences developing college, career, and community readiness skills and their recommendations for building a healthier, more equitable, joyful, and sustainable Oakland.

Monday, April 17th

Oakland High School
*Entrepreneurship
Computer Science*
Skyline High School
Manhood Development
Oakland Tech High School
AP Environmental Science
OUSD AAMA
African American Male Achievement Initiative
UC Berkeley Mentors
City of Oakland
Chief Resilience Officer
BART

Monday, May 1st

Skyline High School
*Green Academy
12th Grade Physics*
City of Oakland
Planning Department
Buoyant Ecologies

BOTH EVENTS ARE at Oakland City Hall
from 5:00 - 7:30pm

Y-PLAN is an educational strategy that empowers young people to tackle real-world problems in their communities through project-based civic learning experiences.

Berkeley Graduate School of Education

WALTER & ELISE HAAS FUND

The California Endowment

For more information about Y-PLAN Oakland, visit our website at y-plan.berkeley.edu or email ameppley@berkeley.edu